Charlotte Hungerford Hospital Community Report

PATIENT SAFETY & QUALITY: JOB #1

Daniel J. McIntyre | President & Executive Director | Charlotte Hungerford Hospital

Dear Community Members,

2015 will be best remembered as the year we were busy expanding our physical plant and multispecialty group practices, planning for our 100th anniversary, and strategizing on how best to move in the next century of caregiving in a rapidly changing healthcare environment. This past year, we invested in our operations in Winsted, modernized our operating rooms and finalized plans for a major renovation and expansion of our Emergency Department. We are also looking forward to celebrating with the community to commemorate our 100th anniversary history during 2016.

Daniel J. McIntyre Throughout the year on any given day, the most important responsibilities undertaken by Charlotte Hungerford Hospital are these:

- To keep you as safe as possible while you are using our services
- To address your illness or injury as diligently and directly as possible
- To recognize when you need much more specialized care, and to get you safely into an environment that is designed to render that highly specialized care

Given these responsibilities, I wanted to share with you our patient safety accomplishments and experience during this past year. The Connecticut Department of Public Health monitors each Connecticut hospital's rate of experiencing an "adverse event," or an event that has been determined to result in a patient suffering serious harm, serious disability or even death. According to their latest report, CHH experienced ONLY ONE ADVERSE EVENT, one of the lowest numbers among all Connecticut hospitals.

It is important to keep in mind that our fortunate experience thus far is not a reliable predictor of our likelihood of having this excellent experience in the future, but it does reflect the importance we place upon your safety.

Additionally, we have been able to maintain our already excellent Joint Commission Patient Safety Accountability rating, holding close to a 97 percent out of a possible 100 percent. The Joint Commission is the hospital industry's "patient safety auditor" utilized by Medicare in evaluating the reliability of hospitals providing service to Medicare patients. The achievement of 100 percent on the graph at right represents the best measurable performance that can be achieved by a hospital.

Our patient satisfaction level for this annual report was maintained at an annual average of 86 percent for our emergency service, keeping in mind that we were striving to reach 90 percent. We'll try harder! We did see an improvement in our time from greeting our patients in the emergency department to the time they are seen by a physician (often called "door-to-doctor" time), which was further reduced to 24 minutes.

Having achieved these noteworthy ratings, we hold onto our strong desire to "do even better." So here's what we've got "on the drawing board":

1. We have committed to a "zero infections" philosophy and goal. Since

Joint Commission Patient Safety Accountability Score

How well we performed in vital clinical areas including surgery, pneumonia care, heart failure and heart attack care and outpatient care.

we already have an incredibly low number of infections, reaching "zero" is challenging the "laws of diminishing returns," so we have more than doubled our infection control precautions, monitoring and communications in order to reach and sustain "zero infections."

2. We have committed to change the way we monitor and improve the quality of our care based on a self-initiated audit of our present system. This initiative will involve our management, Board, physicians and staff working together to re-engineer the expectations, processes, structure and metrics of our Quality Monitoring and Improvement System.

3. We have committed to a partnership along with 27 other Connecticut hospitals and the Connecticut Hospital Association in a statewide patient safety initiative aimed at ensuring that our hospital and medical staff achieve the highest levels of accountability and patient outcomes through best practices and protocols as we strive to become a "High Reliability" organization.

So, we have adopted some really ambitious goals, but we are totally committed to achieving them because achieving them means keeping you as safe and healthy as possible! Thank you for your continued faith in our Charlotte Hungerford Hospital family...we shall not disappoint you!

Respectfully,

Daniel J. McIntyre
President and Executive Director

Charlotte Hungerford Hospital Auxiliary

The CHH Auxiliary Board of Directors and its 23 members expressed their gratitude for the support from sponsors and the community in all projects during 2015. Projects included special vendor sales, artist of the month program, holiday season greeting promotion, membership dues, the annual fashion show, and the CHH Gift Shop. Through these projects, the auxiliary contributed needed items to benefit the hospital and patient care.

In 2015, the auxiliary provided $12,000 to purchase a Glidiscop ($12,000) for the intensive care unit. The Glidiscop makes it safer and quicker for a physician to place a breathing tube in a patient. This "wish" was immediately fulfilled. The auxiliary also provided $9,500 to purchase blanket warmers for the Mammography Center and main campus emergency department.

Twelve $1,000 scholarships were awarded by the auxiliary to students pursuing a medical field; two honor former physicians, Alfred Fabro, M.D., and Joseph Curi, M.D.

The CHH Gift Shop continues to serve the public and hospital employees with a beautiful array of gifts. Please visit the shop; it helps the Auxiliary in funding its many projects.

Charlotte Hungerford Hospital Auxiliary Officers for 2014-2015 are, from left, Patti Kwashnak, Treasurer; Barbara Pudlinski, President; Judith Hogan, Vice President; Marianne Lent, Recording Secretary; and Peg Beecher, Corresponding Secretary.

The auxiliary will hold a Vintage Fashion Show on June 8 at the Torrington Country Club to celebrate the 100th anniversary of its founding on October 23, 2016. More information will be available at a later date. The auxiliary is looking forward to community support during its anniversary year.

Our Volunteers And Chaplains

The Charlotte Hungerford Hospital Volunteer Program provides essential, supplementary and complementary services to patients, families, visitors and staff. The program has over 160 active volunteers in both non-clinical and clinical areas of the hospital who donate 18,000 hours of service annually.

We are very grateful to all our many dedicated volunteers and chaplains who work with us throughout the year. If you would like more information about becoming a Charlotte volunteer, please contact us at (860) 496-6349.
